Historia de Machu Picchu: El último santuario de la nobleza inca (Spanish Edition) Juan Luis Orrego Penagos

Hasta 1911, el santuario de Machu Picchu, hoy maravilla mundial, solo era conocido por un puñado de habitantes de las riberas del Vilcanota en la ceja de selva del Cuzco. El explorador norteamericano Hiram Bingham lo "redescubrió" para el mundo y también abrió una incógnita, aún no resuelta, sobre la importancia y función de este santuario para los Incas a partir del reinado de Pachacútec, su constructor. Este libro nos cuenta su historia, cómo fue conocido por los mismos españoles en el siglo XVI y presenta lo que podemos afirmar hoy de la ciudadela a partir de las últimas investigaciones históricas, arqueológicas y antropológicas.
