The Map of God - [Verse & Prose] P. W. Acebal

This is the chronicle of one person's struggle to understand the meaning of struggling itself; ultimately, the only resolution is to defer our struggle to the Divine force that created us. Set forth through both verse and prose fiction in a cyclical progression, the struggle unfolds through language's own alchemy as it is impacted by both the mysticism of religion and the ephemeral presence of popular culture and the place of both in the educating of the soul.
