This volume has been compiled to meet a want long felt in this parish, and at the expressed desire of many other pastors. It furnishes a choice selection of hymns, in good type, and at a price within the reach of every child. The writer designs to publish soon a cheap and popular book of music, arranged for these hymns. The author submits it to those entrusted with the instruction of the young, hoping it may assist them in their arduous work. Church of St. Paul the Apostle, Fifty-ninth St., New York, Easter, (Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and don't occur in the book.)
