Modernización capitalista, racismo y violencia. Guatemala (1750-1930) (Spanish Edition) Matilde González-Izás

Este libro se distancia de los hechos de violencia en sí y nos aporta sugerentes claves para entender la historicidad de las ideas, representaciones y prácticas sociales que hicieron posible la violencia extrema, el terror estatal y la guerra genocida que marcaron la historia reciente de Guatemala. En sus diferentes capítulos, la autora reconstruye con especial esmero "los nexos" entre los procesos de modernización capitalista, la formación del Estado y las nuevas empresas de colonización europea, que se echan a andar en esta región tras la independencia de España.
