The Girlfriend Experience K. A. Campbell

Tawny has never played it safe. Whether it be professionally or personally she was a natural born risk taker. She must've gotten that from her daddy. That was how he made his millions, taking chances. So when an old family friend turned lover introduces her to escorting it was only right that she jump at the opportunity. Not even the security of her ambitious boyfriend Ryan could detere her from that. But things are never as they seem. When Tawny goes on a "date" with a new Russian Client she finds herself in a very bad situation. A situation that her lover leaves her to deal with on her own. She's never been one to let disaster stop her. Her pride has never allowed her to sit down and become a victim. She picks herself up soliciting the help of her two best friends Chantelle and Lacey to venture out on her own. They launch a new escort service called The Girlfriend Experience Incorporated. Business is booming but as easy as the money comes so does the drama. Her personal and professional life is in shambles. Friends seemed to become foes and her life is slowly spiraling out of control. Just when she thinks things can't get any worse a surprising change of events takes place that leaves her fearful about her safety and freedom.
