If I Could Sit On A Bee's Knees Charlotte Hubbard

Why do honey bees sting? How do they make honey? How are they different from wasps? These and other questions most often asked about honey bees are answered as a curious cat wanders through an interesting story with simple rhyme, enchanting illustrations, and up-close photographs from the world of this critical insect.

The author speaks nationally on behalf of this insect to groups of all ages and levels of knowledge about this important pollinator. Her website provides free, additional resources to support learning about honey bees.
