Saggio sulla libertà (Saggi. Tascabili) (Italian Edition) John Stuart Mill

Fin dalla sua pubblicazione nel 1858, il Saggio sulla libertà è stato considerato uno dei testi fondanti del liberalismo e il modello per la costruzione di una democrazia reale. Quali sono la natura e i limiti del potere che la società può legittimamente esercitare sull'individuo? Così si interroga John Stuart Mill in questo classico del pensiero politico. Alla base della risposta c'è il criterio utilitarista del massimo benessere per il maggior numero di persone, che deve essere il fondamento delle norme che regolano il vivere comune. Nel suo percorso alla ricerca della felicità, l'individuo è libero fino a quando non arreca danno agli altri: libero anche di esprimere il proprio dissenso dalle idee predominanti, libero di non conformarsi a un modello di opinioni, sentimenti e usanze che la società impone come norma di condotta.
