Take Our Country Back: One Song and One Man's Story of the Tea Party Chris Cassone, Robert Stacy McCain

What happens when an idea strikes fire in the hearts of a nation? Chris Cassone has seen it happen. He was one of millions of Americans who joined the Tea Party movement and whose song, Take Our Country Back, helped turn that movement into a truly revolutionary force. What began in March 2009 as a few simple lyrics became the anthem sung by thousands of voices at the massive 9/12 March on Washington in September 2009. The song went viral, carrying Cassone from his first Tea Party rally on a Connecticut town square to the steps of the nation's Capitol-heard by a national television audience of millions. Now, Chris shares the story behind that song, and explains the meaning of a movement that changed the American political landscape. Many Americans have taken their freedoms for granted because they were born with them. Take Our Country Back is a piece of history-a story of all Americans who have been sucked into the popular liberal lie.
