"White is the color for all seasons, and it never goes out of style. Rest your tired soul in a cool summer beach room, revel in the sumptuousness of an orange-white living room steeped in autumn elegance, or welcome winter with a classic gold-and-white table setting. White furnishings and home accessories have many contrasts and hues, but their net effect is always one of elegance. In this book, Stephanie Hoppen uses her design expertise to create distinctive rooms decorated and complemented with the many hues and contrasts of white. Whether your taste runs to white and creams, white and taupe, or white and pinks, White on White features a wide range of styles from classic country to urban minimal"
