Rome II Regulation: Pocket Commentary (Pocket Commentaries on European Regulations and International Conventions)

The Rome II Regulation creates a common regime of conflict of law rules for tort, unjust enrichment, negotiorum gestio, and culpa in contrahendo for (most of) the Member States of the EU. This book provides a concise and instructive article-by-article commentary which explains the underlying concepts and suggests solutions for problems that have arisen or may arise in the application of the Regulation. The book is the first volume of the new s.e.l.p series of Pocket Commentaries on European regulations and international conventions in the area of conflict of laws. The series is a handy indispensable reference to the legal texts covered.
