Estados Unidos de Banana (Spanish Edition) Giannina Braschi

Giannina Braschi explora el viaje cultural y político de casi cincuenta millones de hispanos que viven en los Estados Unidos en esta nueva obra de ficción revolucionaria, su primer escrito original en inglés, ahora traducido al español.

Estados Unidos de Banana tiene lugar en la Estatua de la Libertad, en la Nueva York pos 11-S, donde Hamlet, Zaratustra y Giannina emprenden una búsqueda para liberar al prisionero puertorriqueño Segismundo.

Segismundo lleva encarcelado más de cien años, escondido por su padre, el rey de los Estados Unidos de Banana, por el delito de haber nacido. Pero cuando el rey se vuelve a casar, libera a su hijo, en aras de la reconciliación convierte a Puerto Rico en el estado número 51 de la nación y otorga el pasaporte estadounidense a todos los ciudadanos de América Latina.

Esta asombrosa demostración de benevolencia conmueve a la comunidad mundial a la vez que provoca un cambio de poder inesperado con consecuencias de largo alcance.

En un mundo que lucha para unir fuerzas a favor de la libertad, los Estados Unidos de Banana son una referencia a tener en cuenta en la literatura, el arte y la política.
