Fondamentalismi (Italian Edition) Christian Zanon

Può una religione diventare fonte di odio e di morte? Esiste, tra le varie fedi della terra, una più propensa rispetto ad altre a connotarsi in maniera fondamentalista? In questo saggio di facile e veloce lettura, l'autore prende in esame le più grandi religioni del pianeta interpretandole dal punto di vista psicologico per comprendere quali siano i meccanismi di trasformazione e come un messaggio, che dovrebbe essere di pace e amore, possa deviare dal suo cammino e produrre effetti a volte devastanti. Basandosi sulle vicende internazionali degli ultimi decenni, prendendo spunto dalle lunghe interviste con esponenti di diversa matrice religiosa, l'autore ricostruisce un quadro lineare ed esaustivo, arrivando alla conclusione che nessuna fede, di per sé, è fondamentalista. Sono gli uomini che vi aderiscono a determinarne sempre, per i più svariati motivi, le derive che conducono a massacri, guerre, attentati, discriminazioni, persecuzioni. Christian Zanon, in modo lucido e senza pregiudizi, delimita gli ambiti in cui si coltiva l'humus di questo grave problema che affligge l'umanità.
