Mi hanno fatto sedere qui (Italian Edition) Francesca Cuzzocrea

“Mi presento: sono Adele. O almeno, quello che rimane di lei. Sono un piccolo sussurro della sua coscienza, nascosta in un angolo sempre più buio della sua memoria... La mia voce è sempre più sottile, ma finché esisterò racconterò di me. Penso, dunque esisto. Ancora.”

È in questo modo che la protagonista del romanzo, Adele, ci introduce nella sua realtà alterata dalla demenza senile, di cui soffre. Con lei e le sue due figlie percorreremo il tortuoso cammino della malattia, che segnerà in modo indelebile le loro vite e i loro rapporti familiari.
