Technical and Vocational Education and Training in Viet Nam: An Assessment

This publication is an assessment of major trends, strengths, and issues in the technical and vocational education and training subsector, focusing on formal skills development programs operated by the General Department of Vocational Training of the Ministry of Labor, Invalids and Social Affairs of the Socialist Republic of Viet Nam. It analyzes the country's technical and vocational training system as well as subsector policies and strategies. Data on related issues (such as growth in employment, education indicators, and enrollment rates) were collected, consolidated, and displayed in tabular form to give readers an overall picture and comprehensive view of the development of the subsector.
