A Invenção Do Dia Claro (Portuguese Edition) José Sobral de Almada Negreiros

Dos grandes continentes que compõem o denominado velho Mundo, é certamente a Africa aquella cuja exploração hoje em dia se tornou de preferencia o objecto da attenção geral dos governos das nações civilisadas, e isto por tão variados titulos, como os que podem dizer respeito ás investigaões geographicas, ao conhecimento da importancia de seus productos, ás condiões da sua populaão, e á influencia que lhe pde caber no futuro movimento commercial do Mundo. É na Africa que teve sede uma das mais antigas civilisaões que a historia recorda, a egypcia, testemunhada pelas ingentes pyramides e collossaes esphinges, que por muito tempo causaram a desesperaão dos archeologos. A Lybia, onde os phenicios levaram suas colonias á fundaão de Carthago, deixa ver a vetustidade d'aquella parte do globo, que já para o grande poeta do Lacio fornecia inspiraões, tiradas de factos coevos de Dido e dos exules do cerco de Troya. Mas esse continente onde a historia antiga vae descobrir o ancão dos povos, e remontar a epocas remotissimas, é aquella que ainda hoje, apoz os progressos da moderna geographia, deixa mais vasto campo para estudo e indagaões, e cuja maior porão ainda se acha mal conhecida, inexplorada, e povoada por tribus tão variadas, como varios são seus caracteres mais ou menos selvagens, e na maxima parte, ainda estranhos aos effeitos da civilisaão. Notaveis coincidencias nos deixa ver a historia. Milhares de annos se interpõe decorridos desde que a Africa é n'ella mencionada. De pouco mais e pouco menos de quatro seculos datam, o começo das exploraões do até então desconhecido littoral do occidente africano, e o descobrimento do limite austral d'aquella velha parte do Mundo. A esse tempo, as duas Americas eram entidades desconhecidas, quando Colombo e Cabral d'ellas deram noticia. Haverá um seculo apenas, que Cook descobria regiões austraes até então ignotas. E hoje as Americas e a Australia, esses vastos continentes apenas conhecidos de tão recente data, apresentam-se na sua maxima parte povoados de cultas sociedades, em todos seus extensos littoraes, e deixando ver n'aquellas regiões transatlanticas, novas nacionalidades e estados florescentes, oriundos da civilisaão europea, para alli transplantada, e onde a par da importancia d'aquelles, se alarga a esphera d'acção d'esta. E a Africa? Ainda um denso véo encobre em grande parte a sua intima condião da existencia e modo de ser; ainda no maximo numero a sua populaão vive vida selvagem e feroz, sem que o facho da civilisaão viesse alumiar as trevas do seu primitivo estado
