The summer before her senior year of high school, Jess is forced to visit the one man in the world she despises most: her grandfather. He was the reason for the split between her parents, and now she has to spend the entire summer at his farm, away from her home in Seattle.

A mundane summer suddenly changes when she meets Clint Foster, the man who has everything going for him. Successful, charming, and gorgeous - could he be the one? Trading in her punk rock concerts for chicken coops and her sneakers for cowboy boots, Jess finds this summer to be one of transformations that will leave her world changed forever.
